REF: Reassignment of Duties
Transfer Resulting From Disciplinary Actions

Effective this date, you are being reassigned with a reduction in rank and hourly rate. Your options for reassignment are as follows:

1. You will be given the opportunity to self-transfer to the Transportation Division, with the rank of Deputy. By taking this transfer, you will receive a reduction in your hourly pay ($25.96), and you will be assigned to Sgt. Shawn Darling. Your duty hours and days off will be decided as best needed to complete the work assignments of that division.
2. In the event you decline this transfer opportunity, you will no longer hold a position with the Waller County Sheriff's Office. Your employment will be an "AT WILL" termination.
3. Your current Detective assignment will end with the close of today's schedule, and you are not authorized to occur any additional comp or overtime hours. You will need to remove all personal items from your Detective workstation and return all equipment issued to you resulting from this assignment to the Detective Bureau supervisor staff.
4. Your county vehicle may be used to transport your personal items to your residence, and you are directed to return your county vehicle to Lt. Garner or Sgt. Covarrubias by 0900 Hrs. Tuesday January 16, 2024. Retention of the vehicle past that time will be considered as Unauthorized Use.

The final disposition of this matter will be based on the Sheriff's closing decision.

Incident Narrative:

On Monday, January 8, 2024, I, Lieutenant J. Garner, was contacted by Sergeant N. Covarrubias in reference to a Case Management Review that had been conducted on open cases assigned to Detective Amanda Suggs.

At the time of the review, which occurred on 12/20/2023, Sergeant Covarrubias identified thirty cases that were assigned to Detective Suggs, from 09/12/2022 through 12/20/2023, which had either not been written or supplemented and/or not updated for extended periods of time, the most being over 400 days. Sergeant Covarrubias reviewed each case and provided recommendations for many of the cases to be resolved quickly. He emailed Detective Suggs on 12/20/2023 with the cases and recommendations as well as giving her a timeline to have these investigations updated. The timeline provided was by end of business on 01/04/2024. See attached email for details of case information and recommendations.

On 01/08/2024, I researched each case that was documented in Sergeant Covarrubias' communication with Detective Suggs regarding these cases. My findings are as follows:

22-01703: 460 days to write report

22-01583: Case last supplemented 11/7/22, last accessed 4/21/2023, 62 days between assignment and first supplement

22-01856: 61 days from assignment to only supplement written

22-02022: 401 days, no supplement

2023

23-00233: 323 days before narrative entered

23-01275: 135 days before first supplement entered

23-01285: 134 days before first supplement entered

23-01377: 34 days before first supplement, still no interview supplement.

The following are cases that Sergeant Covarrubias emailed her, which fell within the parameters of policy, but have not been supplemented since.

23-01759: 1 days before first supplement entered
23-01933: Within 10 days, case supplement and sent to WCDA
23-00448: 1 day after assignment, case supplemented
23-01503: 9 days, no forensic interview supplement
23-01525: 10 days before first supplement
23-01545: 7 days to enter first supplement but no interview supplement
23-01790: 6 days to write narrative

In many of these instances, Detective Suggs waited until 01/04/2024 to supplement these cases. Several were entered within two to three minutes of the previous supplement, see Sergeant Covarrubias' letter that is attached for details with timestamps of cases entered.

Of the thirty cases that Detective Suggs was contacted about, seven met the policy parameters of being supplemented within 10 days, which indicates that she is capable of following the policy for which she signed for on 08/18/2022. The fact that the remaining twenty three cases went weeks without any definable investigative activity establishes an alarming pattern of behavior that is inconsistent with expectations of the Waller County Sheriff's Office Detective Bureau. Due to this, I recommend that Detective Suggs be transferred from the Detective Bureau.

Policy Violation: Failed to write reports timely manner

Policy 4.13 Title: Procedures: Offense Reports

Offense reports are timely written, either during or shortly after the shift on which the incident was reported. Preferably as soon after the incident has occurred and before another incident occurs that may require another report. The information is fresh on the officer's mind. Officers turn in the report to their supervisor for evaluation, approval, and further action by the agency. Once approved, the supervisor passes the report to distribution, and notifies the dispatcher for entry or clearance with NCIC and state reporting systems

Policy Violation: Failed to write Supplement reports timely manner

Policy C, 5, b Title: WCSO Detective Bureau SOP – Follow – Up Procedures, Reports

5. Reports

- b. Detectives will have ten (10) working days (exclusive of the date of incident) to complete their initial investigative supplement (or original report if applicable). This applies to the lead Detective's supplement and those of Detectives that conducted investigative activities at the original scene on the date of the incident.

Disciplinary Action Taken:

Upon review the following disciplinary action(s) are recommended: (delete the ones not needed)

1. Transfer from the Detective Bureau and a probationary period of six (6) months which restricts promotion.

To: Lt. J. Garner

From: Sgt. N. Covarrubias

Ref: Detective A. Suggs (Case Management)

Lt. Garner, on December 20, 2023, I reviewed the active cases assigned to each detective in the Detective Bureau. In my review, Detective A. Suggs still needs to enter a narrative or supplement for cases assigned to her in 2022 and 2023.

On December 20, 2023, I emailed Detective Suggs a list of 2022 and 2023 cases, stating that she needed to enter a supplement for the following cases into RMS as per department policy. Detective Suggs was provided with suggestions on how to help close her cases.

In my email, I instructed Detective Suggs to review all of the 2022 cases first so they could be closed promptly, then proceed with the cases with no supplements. Detective Suggs was informed that she had until Thursday, January 4, 2024, to complete the given assignment.

The information listed in this letter is being presented to you for review and final disposition of any disciplinary actions.

(2022)

22-01703: I know you said you are waiting on Sgt. Darling, but I need you to go ahead and enter your supplement now. There is no need to wait for him. I will address that when needed.

22-01583: This case is connected with another case that is closed, and charges have been filed. If that is the case, you need to find and choose an ending for the case and close it.

22-01856: If you have not received any video to update your report, close the case Inactive.

22-02022: Do you have anything more on this case to file charges? If not, then close the case.

(2023)

The following cases need an initial supplement by January 4, 2024.

23-00233: Walk-in Report – No Narrative or supplement is in the report.

23-01275: No supplements entered.

Nick,

Sending this to you to give you an idea of where I'm going with this. She has exhibited a pattern of not supplementing cases within policy parameters and only wrote the ones from the block in the middle because you ordered her to, even though they were long past due. I also noted that there were a few that were supplemented within policy parameters, proving she is capable of doing it.

Offense Reports:

Offense reports are designed to:

1. Provide a means whereby officers can conduct and record a preliminary investigation of a criminal offense;
2. Provide complete and accurate information for follow-up investigation and prosecution;
3. Provide patrol officers and investigators with certain decision-making points that enable them to identify follow-up investigative needs;
4. Improve control of the report flow process within the agency thereby improving report access and statistical recording; &
5. Aid other officers in the collection of crime data, patterns, suspect information, and determine modus operandi, etc.

Offense reports must be completed for all criminal acts and suspected acts. These reports clearly and concisely report elements of the crime by answering critical who, what, when, where, how, and why questions. It is the responsibility of the first officer arriving on the scene to complete the first handwritten copy.

Offense reports are timely written, either during or shortly after the shift on which the incident was reported. Incident Narrative:

On Tuesday, November 21, 2023, I, Lieutenant J. Garner, received an email from Detective Amanda Suggs, indicating that three reports had been updated in RMS and needed to be supervisor approved. One of the listed reports, had a note to the side which stated, "WAITING ON CCHs - once CCHs are in RMS the file will be sent to DA". I reviewed the case by retrieving the report in the RMS computer system and confirmed that no computerized criminal history (CCH) had been attached to the report.

On Monday, November 27, 2023, at approximately 09:50, I checked the report again and observed that the CCH still had not been attached. I then emailed Detective Suggs and inquired if she had uploaded the CCH into the report attachments. At approximately 16:09, Detective Suggs replied to my email simply with "Yes". (See attached email chain)

On Tuesday, November 28, 2023, at approximately 08:30, I again checked the report and found that Detective Suggs still had not attached the CCH to the report. I then spoke directly with Detective Suggs and questioned her about her failure to attach the documents as directed, to which she advised it would be completed.

On Thursday, November 30, 2023, I again checked the report and the CCH was still not attached. I called her into Sergeant N. Covarrubias' office and questioned her yet once again in the presence of Sergeant Covarrubias, as to why she had not attached the documents as instructed. She stated, "That's the way I've been doing it down south". She went onto say "Leithner had me do it that way". I informed her that the policy of our agency has not changed and that all documentation associated with a case shall be attached.

I then told Detective Suggs to complete this task by the end of business today. Detective Suggs looked straight ahead and stated, "I'll do my best". In the manner she spoke, without making eye contact, I interpreted this action and being condescending, so I then gave a verbal order that this task would be completed by end of business today. Again, looking straight ahead, this time clenching her jaw, stated, "I will do my best".

It is my finding that Detective Suggs violated policy by failing to attach the required documents to a casefile that should have already been received by the District Attorney's Office and by providing a false statement to me when questioned if the action had been completed. By failing to established procedures and instruction in a timely manner, it delays the District Attorney's Office from reviewing the case as well as potentially prolongs any court proceedings, as well as providing misleading information on the transmittal and Brady notice.

Is it possible that you put in on another case, because all I see are a registration for a car, ID history for Nathan and Tammy, two unsigned non-prosecution documents and two emails. Additionally, an unsigned non-prosecution documents are not acceptable as they are meaningless without signatures.
